

John David Holladay

August 20, 1965 - October 27, 2020

On Tuesday, October 27, 2020 John David Holladay, loving husband and father passed away at the age of 55.

John was born in Birmingham, Alabama to Jerry and Pamela Payne Holladay. He attended Pensacola Junior College then finished his BA degree in Music at The University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. While in college, he worked as part time choir director at Purvis United Methodist Church in Purvis, Mississippi. He later went on the work at Dallas Bay Baptist Church in Soddy Daisy, Tennessee, Boynton Baptist Church in Ringgold, Georgia and New Hope Baptist Church in Pell City, Alabama.

John could be described as a “jack of all trades” because he worked several different kinds of jobs to pay the bills, but his real passion was music. He sang with the worship team at his church. He loved getting together with his wife and two aunts, Mary and Ginger, to sing at family gatherings. He also sang with various choral groups through the years but his favorite and most current was singing baritone with Voices of the South, a barbershop chorus in Birmingham, Alabama and Sentimental Gentlemen, his quartet.

“ I remember when John was the choir director and I was singing in the choir at New Hope Baptist Church. As he directed us, he always allowed the praises for his Lord to shine through him. Although he was serious about his worship, he also had a way with words. During some of the strangest times, he could find ways to make us all laugh as we practiced our songs. He will truly be missed by many.
