

Adarius "Pedro" Termaine McCamble

October 18, 1980 - June 9, 2021

Adarius "Pedro" McCamble, 40, of Birmingham, Alabama went to be with his Lord and Savior on Wednesday, June 9, 2021. He is preceded in death by father Marvin Cooke, grandmother Daisy Cooke, grandfather Sam Cooke, great-grandmother Eva Fitzpatrick, and great-great grandma Ettie Lee. He is survived by his loving wife Patricia and their children Major, Maddox, Kendalyn, and Brooklyn McCamble. He is also survived by his mother Geletha; grandmother Patricia Taylor; brothers Michael and Jermaine McCamble; many other siblings, cousins, and aunts and uncles. Adarius was the definition of a great man, slow to speak and slow to anger. He always smiled and went above and beyond to uplift encourage and motivate others. He enjoyed fishing, family, and football. He attended Ensley High School and spent many years providing joy to people by cooking. He had the most perfect spirit. He will be mourned by everyone that had the opportunity to know him. A visitation will be held at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home Tuesday, June 15, 2021 from 11 A.M. to 1 P.M. with a service to follow in the chapel. Burial will be at Jefferson Memorial Gardens.

“ You always were and forever will be the light of my life!! I just don't know how to move through life without you picking me up when I was falling apart! You were the ying to my yang the peanut butter to my jelly. And life is forever changed without you. We were end game! I just never realized it would be this soon I was supposed to be helping you up the stairs and whipping your butt 39 years from now! But, God had other plans love you the moon! I'll see you again one day
