

Alan "Big Al" Hubbard Windle

January 29, 1957 - June 4, 2026

Alan "Big Al" Hubbard Windle entered the gates of Heaven on June 4, 2026 at the age of 69 after battling cancer. Alan was born on January 29, 1957 in Birmingham, AL. He married Pam Mize on June 20, 1981.

He was a committed member of Huffman Baptist Church for most of his life where he served as a 5 year old Sunday school teacher for over 20 years. As a child, Alan loved watching his dad work construction. This led to him to begin his career at Ellard Construction and eventually Brasfield & Gorrie, where he spent the last 39 years of his career and was given the nickname Big Al.

Alan's favorite pastimes were fishing and watching Alabama football and softball.

Alan's life was defined by family, simplicity, hard work, Alabama football, and Jesus.

His most treasured role was in the raising of his children and grandchildren.

Alan is survived by his wife, Pam Windle, children, Coleman (Ceirra) Windle, and Carson (Heather) Windle, grandchildren, Aly Coleman, Baker, Mary Clayton, Ridley Ann, and Calan, brothers, Mark (Cindy) Windle and Dale

Windle, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his daughter, Lauren Ann Windle, and his parents, Rudolph and Mary Jean Windle.

A worship service and celebration of Alan's life will be held on Monday, June 8 at 11:00 at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home in Trussville. Visitation will take place at 10:00 with a private family graveside to follow services.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to make donations to Tyler and Bethany Barber, E-3 missionaries in New York City. Donations can be made online at <https://purecharity.com/checkout/539447> or by mail by following these instructions <https://purecharity.com/fundraisers/84766/mail/100>.
