

Anita Irwin LaGroue

January 8, 1944 - October 11, 2017

Anita Irwin LaGroue, 73, of Birmingham, AL, passed away on October 11, 2017.

She was the daughter of Bruce Irwin and Cora Boyle Irwin, of Center Point, who preceded her in death, as did her sister, Linda. She is survived by her loving husband of 51 years, Edwin B. LaGroue, and her loving daughter, Melissa Williamson (Jon) of Trussville. She is also survived by many beloved members of her family, including brother, Bruce Irwin (Carla), and sisters Dee Evans, Prissy McCain (Jerry) and Lila Talley (William).

She was very proud of her seven grandchildren, Sean, Quinn, Abigail, Ethan, Nolan and twins, Cora Beth and Cameron. They were the lights of her life. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews who thought dearly of her.

Anita was respected and loved by all. She exhibited an incredible empathy for her family and friends and many often came to her for advice and to share experiences. She loved to entertain and to cook for her family and friends and people always enjoyed being around her. She was a unique person who had the ability to think through various problems and help others with their concerns and doubts. She was a wonderful wife, mother and friend and we will all miss her. We love you and miss you.
