

Ann C. Wooldridge

April 3, 1937 - November 26, 2019

Ann C. Wooldridge, age 82, of Birmingham, Alabama went to be with her Lord on Tuesday, November 26, 2019. She had a sweet spirit for the Lord and was a loving wife, Mom, Nana and friend to all who knew her. She had a beautiful talent for cross-stitching and showered many people with gifts that she had labored with love to create. She was preceded in death by her husband, Don Wooldridge; two sons, Dennis and Clint Wooldridge; parents, Lamar, Verna and Ruth Camp.

She is survived by her daughters, Nena Jackson (Scott) and Rhonda Hardy (Bryan); her grandchildren, Justin Baker (Kristina), Madison Smithwood (Paul) and Austin Hardy; her bonus grandchildren, David and Matthew Jackson, Kendra Wicklund and Adam Hardy; great-grandchildren, Aubrey, Oliver, and Asher Baker, Keegan and Owen Wicklund and many more family and friends. Visitation will be on Friday, November 29, 2019 from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Huffman Baptist Church in the Parlor with funeral service to follow at 12:00 PM. Burial will follow in Highland Cemetery in Piedmont, Alabama.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to her nephew's restoration and discipleship mission-True Purpose Ministries, 2628 Morganton Road, Maryville, TN 37801.

“ Dear Nena and Rhonda, My very sincere sympathy to each of you. The loss of both parents in a realitily short time creates and empty feeling. Don and Ann are together, for sure, and well and in the presence of Tod. Accept God's peace freely given in this difficult time. Ann and I had some good conversations at Maddies wedding. I will remember those. Our God has already welcomed her with open arms as His good and faithful servant. Blessings on you and yours. In Christ's Love, Barb
