“ I met Austin on December 23rd. I brought a phone in to AT&T to have it added to my plan for my son for Christmas, who is also named Austin. Austin was so kind to me and worked so hard to get the line added without having to pay the deposit, which I was prepared to pay anyway. But, he went above and beyond to get the phone added and ready for my son. I planned to go back in after the holidays and tell him how much i appreciated his hard work. Now I wish I would've gone back in right after Christmas. I can't imagine the pain that his family and friends are feeling. My prayers are with you all in the days and months ahead.
