“ There are so many memories that could be shared. One special to me is when we lived in Marietta, Georgia and I got a knock on the door and there stood PawPaw East, totally unexpected, didn't know he was coming. Jay was just a baby and OawPaw said he missed his grandson and came to take us back to Birmingham for a visit. Definitely couldn't say no to that. He was a wonderful Godly man that loved his family.
