

Beatrice Lucille Rhoades

March 22, 1947 - March 15, 2022

Mrs. Beatrice Lucille Rhoades, 74, passed away on March 15, 2022. She was a loving wife, mama, and granny to her family and all her close friends and family. After retiring from Amerex after 30 years, she had enjoyed her retirement being at home with her family and friends and getting to love on her babies. She loved quilting, canning, and her flowers.

She is preceded in death by her father, Lewis Anderson; mother, Clara Bell Anderson; and sister, Mandy Galloway.

She is survived by her loving husband of 57 years and teenage sweethearts, James Rhodes; daughters, Karen Burtram (Porter), Janet Rollins (Jeff), and Tracy Banks (Keith); brother, Stanley Anderson (Brenda); sister, Betty Sue Peoples; grandchildren, Deanna Higgins, Misty Burtram, Joshua Burtram (Suzanna), Shelbi Landers (Josh), Tiffany Taylor (Garrett), and Jon Banks; 11 great-grandchildren; and a host of special, lifelong friends and family.

A visitation will be held on Friday, March 18, 2022 from 6:00pm to 8:00pm at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home in Trussville, AL. The funeral service will begin at 2:00pm from the funeral home chapel on Saturday, March 19, 2022 with Reverend Porter Burtram officiating. Interment will immediately follow at Pleasant Hill United Methodist Church Cemetery in Springville, AL with Reverend Joshua Burtram officiating.

A special thanks to our Home Health family (Jessica and Missy) and Dr. Dey, Dr. Middlebrooks, and Dr. Flowers for all the compassion you have given mom and her family throughout her life.
