“ I had the honor of working with Ms Betty and called her my work wife. We worked together side by side for several years. I have to laugh over the great memories we shared. There where days we could have ripped each other's heads off but we always knew we respected and loved each other. She was so wise and always loved sharing her life stories. We talked once about how we wanted to be remembered after our deaths and I can't say on here what she told me, but I can say she touched my life in a positive way. She took pride in her work, loved her children deeply and adored her grandchildren. She will live on though the hearts of those she leaves behind. Rest In Peace.
