

Betty Kimbril Smartt

August 31, 1930 - December 24, 2020

Betty Kimbril Smartt, age 90, reached her heavenly home on December 24, 2020. Betty was a graduate of the Birmingham Business School. She was a member of Keener Baptist Church in the Duck Springs Community. She was also a member of the Duck Springs Homemaker's Club, through which she did volunteer work with the children of Duck Springs Elementary School. She was a great animal lover, including creating a bird sanctuary in her back yard. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dennis Moore Smartt; parents, Russell and Evie Kimbril; her sisters, Helen Maxwell and Jewel Mullins; her brother George Kimbril and nephews, Gordon Maxwell and David Mullins. She is survived by her brother, Kenneth Kimbril and niece Laura Farley and nephews, Phillip Mullins and Glenn Mullins. Betty is also survived by many great nephews and nieces. The family would also like to recognize with deep appreciation the loving service given by niece Laura Farley, sister-in-law Cynthia Kimbril, Keener Baptist Church, and her dedicated caretakers at Self Health Care and Rehab. Memorial service to be determined at a later date.
