“ My heart breaks for the entire family. For Aunt Betty, for Midge, Joe, for Stan, their daughter and grandchildren, and for the cousins!! The nieces and nephews, as well. It's NEVER easy having to give up a loved one; especially one like Rejeana. Some of our talks included *family secrets* we continued to discover as we got older. We discussed her dislike for cheese verses my love for cheese. I would tease her that she was not of this world... and for certain, she wasn't; nor is she now. To be absent in body is to be present with the Lord!! Her citizenship is in Heaven!! She was passing through, and did she ever leave some footprints on the hearts of all who had the honor and privilege of knowing her!! She has heard the words "Well done, they good and faithful servant!!" She ran the race that was set before her and she completed that race!!

Praying that God will comfort the family as only He can during these difficult days that are ahead. Praying each precious memory that lingers will bring laughter to the hearts of the family. She will sorely be missed, but we can rejoice in knowing where she is and that she is no longer suffering!! And I HOPE Heaven has TONS of cheese and that she has already developed a love for it!! She just better save me some when I get there!!!

See ya soon, precious Cousin!! Forever and always loving you!!!
