“ She was the most loving grandma a girl could ever ask for. She gave me a childhood full of incredible memories. So many things flood my mind. She bought me my first Barbie, made the best cookies ever, walked me to the pond to feed the ducks, let me make mud pies. The list goes on and on. There could never be anyone else that would come close to being as amazing as she was. I loved her dearly and will desperately miss hearing her voice.

I will miss her voice too sweetie. And her having a cute little song or jingle for every phrase...she loved you so much. She was with me and daddy at the hospital the day we brought you home. She helped me dress you that day. And stayed with us several nights after. We were afraid we'd break you I guess LOL. She slept on the couch several nights just for my comfort. And just in case we needed her. She was always at my side to help...and she helped all the way through your growing years. She loved you dearly too. We were 3 sweet peas in a pod. The best momma grandma ever. I love you. ❤️
