“ I’ve known Bobby for about 20 years. You couldn’t ask for a better man. I was friends with his wife Barbara and my son was best friends with Cole. My son spent many days and nights there and was always treated like family. They took him on vacations and included him in most everything. I hate to hear this and send my love and prayers to the family.

“ For many years my husband and I have lived across the road from Bobby. They worked together, sat and told family stories and became good friends. When his daughter and her family moved in the big house Bobby moved to pool house. We had our son’s birthday at the pool. Bobby was very generous like that. When he fell and broke his hip, I carried him back and forth to dr appts and was glad I could help him and his family anyway possible. I would go and sit under veranda with him and talk about what ever was thought of. Sometimes watch baseball or football with him. As both Bobby and Steve grew older and health became more of a situation we saw less of each other but never felt less of each other. Going to miss all those days sitting in garage doorway for hours just passing time together. Wish everyone had a friend like you Bobby Truelove, you will be missed so very very much. Love you then,now,ans always. Steve & Lucy
