“ I hate that I missed the arrangements for Brandon. I only knew him a short time. We were neighbors. He was super nice and helped others with grass cutting and such. So sad that he is gone. I'll always remember his smile and sincerity. He was truly a genuine guy. My prayers are with the family.

“ I have countless memories of us growing up together on Rose Lynn Lane, riding our bikes all over from Killough Springs to Roebuck Park. We even covered some territory in Tarrant & Inglenook, too. We constructed a pretty elaborate 2-level treehouse which stood for years. So many good times, he was practically our brother. We will miss him dearly. The McRaes are in our hearts and prayers. We are standing on The Promises as we rest in the confidence that he is now perfectly healed & that we will see him again.
