“ I got to know Brian in 7th grade in Mrs. Haynes class, and we always seemed like we had a class or two together over the years. He was always a good dude and a pleasure to be around. It's always tough to read or hear about someone that you knew that has passed. Especially a classmate. It always takes you back to a conversation, a laugh you shared, or a memory with that person. And it always seems like it was just yesterday. My condolences go out to his family.

“ My heartfelt condolences to Brian's family. Brian worked at our warehouse for a few years after highschool. He had a big heart and we enjoyed working with him. Praying for you during this difficult time.
