“ *Brian was a kind, gentle soul, that was always willing to help with a happy heart. I enjoyed working with Brian over the years and always learn something from him during our conversations. We often shared grandchildren stories and updates and I will miss him and those conversations very much.
Praying for his family during this difficult time.*

“ *Brian was such a Bible scholar. He shared so much in classes at church. We all valued his on sight and wisdom.
He had so much sickness lately and we were hopeful he was finally going to be well. We will miss his sweet smile and kind manner.
Praise God, we WILL see him once more.*
