

Carol Ostiguy Warren

December 16, 1947 - July 5, 2019

Carol was a mom, a daughter, a sister, and a friend. She was also an addict. She struggled with addiction for over two decades and it took her life. It took her joy. Her joy had been her family, her friends, animals, helping people, volunteering, dancing, watching birds, listening to music, the beach, reading, laughing, gatherings at her house, funny movies, Good & Plenty candy, and Christmas lights. She was preceded in death by her parents, James Ostiguy and Alvera Ostiguy; and brother, Joe Ostiguy. She is survived by her sister, Diane Prindle (Russ;) a brother, Ed Ostiguy (Joyce); her daughters, Wendy Johnson (A.J.) and Kristina Warren; a grandson Cody Johnson and her grandcats, Hunter and Hazel. She attended Satellite High School in Satellite Beach, Florida and Faulkner University in Huntsville, Alabama. In lieu of flowers, donations for end of life expenses for Carol Warren can be made through Shades Valley Community Church at 160 W Oxmoor Rd, Homewood, Al, 35209. Any donations above end of life costs will be donated in Carol's name to Friends of Rescue Dog And Cat Rescue in Huntsville, Alabama. Please add "Warren" to the memo of your donation.

“ I remember visiting Carol and her family when my sister and I were very young. She would always give us a bowl of Alpha Bits to eat while she, Elwyn, and my parents sat around and talked. So many other memories of when she came to Tennessee, going to the fair, horse shows, and joking about who's team was better! ;) RIP Carol

“ I met Carol through a chat room on the web. We both attended several "bashes" held at different places around the country. I found Carol to be a warm, caring person who was also a lot of fun. We always had fun when she was there. I was so heartbroken to hear of her passing. My prayers and condolences to her family,

“ I met Carol (Lady in Red) way back in 1996 on a chat site called WBS. A group of us became friends online and then met and became “real time” friends.

We laughed together, we cried together, we prayed together and we all loved each other. Carol was a loving person who loved to laugh! She talked about her daughters and grandson all the time. Rest In Peace LIR! I wish I had known. I love you. - angel510
