“ I met Charles many years ago through Sue and Dolores. I did not see him often but each time I did, he impressed me as a true southern gentleman with a genuine friendliness about him—a rare find these days. His devotion to his family was exemplified when he drove from Hueytown to Trussville everyday to be a “mannie” to his beautiful grandchildren. Later he served on the volunteer security patrol at their school. What a super granddaddy!! Charles’ devotion to Brooklyn and Trent actually inspired me to be a devoted and fun grandmother myself. I know you will miss him but you will never forget him .
Love to the whole family,

“ I loved Charles, whenever you saw him he always had a smile on his face. He was always so friendly to everyone. I know he will be missed, but just remember the love, the laughter and all the good times. He is at peace and not suffering. I am so sorry for your loss. God's blessing on everyone to help you through the coming days.

With Love,
