

Christopher Peyton Hooten

July 16, 1982 - October 25, 2021

Christopher Peyton Hooten, 39, of Clay-Chalkville, passed away on October 25, 2021. Born in Birmingham, Alabama, Peyton was baptized at Centercrest Baptist Church in Center Point where he was involved in the youth group and played basketball. After graduating high school, he explored different vocations before finding his niche working in sales in West Palm Beach, Florida. Peyton was quick-witted with an infectious laugh, loving heart, and was a defender of family and friends. He cherished time with his family, especially his two children, and enjoyed the beach and Alabama football. He excelled in all kinds of trivia and was a connoisseur of hot sauces. He is preceded in death by grandparents, James Luther Hooten, Chriss F. Walters, and Jo Ann Davis; and sister, Kati Hooten. He is survived by his daughter Madelyn Grace Hooten; son, Isaiah Hooten; parents, Chris and Carol Hooten; grandmother, Betty Jo Hooten Smith; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Visitation for family and friends will be held on Tuesday, November 2, at 11:00 a.m. at The Church at Bradford Road, 35 Bradford Road, Springville, Alabama, prior to a memorial service at 12:00 p.m.
