

Curtis Zeff Stewart

August 21, 1950 - March 26, 2019

Curtis Zeff Stewart, retired to heavenly joy on March 26th 2019. After fighting and beating kidney cancer and Parkinson's disease for over 10 years, he decided it was time to rest and join his cherished son Wesley in peace. A son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, uncle, and friend. He was the embodiment of love, humor, creativity, hard work and true grit. Long with his father and two brothers, he ran Pinson Valley Body and Paint, taking care of many loyal customers for over 30 years.

Born to John L. and Louise Stewart on August, 21, 1950, he was the third of four children. He loved sharing his fond childhood memories of trouble making and good times with his sister Wanda (Darden) and two brothers Johnny Wayne and Cliff. On June, 6th 1970, he married his high school sweetheart Cynthia Pruitt whom he raised two children with, Wesley and Laci. Curtis loved being a father and never lost his own childlike enthusiasm and playfulness. He shared that enthusiasm with his four Grandchildren, Blaine, Chase, and Van Stewart, and River Resty. He wasn't just their Dad or Pop, but also their best friend. A man with not just nine lives, but 99, as his family always said. He was a risk taker and outgoing individual at heart. From rock jumping into unknown quarry's to chasing down thieves. He always had an exciting story to tell and time to help anyone in need. In his later years, he enjoyed cooking, spending time with his dogs, building elaborate birdhouses and watching old westerns and nascar. The intense loss we feel for our Dad, Pop, brother, uncle, and friend is worth the many years of love, strength, acceptance, creativity, humor and great cooking he gave us all, especially those BBQ ribs, chili and strawberry pies.
