“ Jerry and Kelly,
I will always remember the happy times we had with the Vick's during holidays and adhoc BBQ's. Mr. Vick was like an second Dad for me as he was always there to share his experiences he had with my Dad as they grew up. To have a friend for over 75 years was a blessing for both of them and was passed on to me. They grew up and apart over the years but were always together in spirit. I remember when we came back to Birmingham for visits Dad would always say first thing " I have to call Vick". No doubt he will be waiting at Heaven's gate to tell him get in here I have been waiting on you. He was a wonderful friend and he loved you both more than life! I am very blessed to have know you all and be able to call you family. I will miss your husband and father dearly. All my love
Harvey.
