“God put a special person in my path to do life with. He also took him back home yesterday. For 23 years Daniel gave me the best days of my life and blessings I cannot wrap my head around.

He gave when he had nothing to give, he made people laugh where there was none, he treasured every interaction with every person that stood in front of him, he did not meet a stranger, he was never short of words, and he loved fiercely. To not see him for years was merely days.

For his children he gave everything he had. His blood, sweat, strength, and tears. His love for us never waivered. It was the air he breathed. He was outdoors in every fiber and unmatched in his knowledge of his profession. To mention his grandfathers would bring a tear every single time. He is with them and I know he is laughing with them now. The stories we have all heard so many times he gets to relive first hand.

The light inside of him will not fade and he is now without struggle and healed. He faced so much and we fought so hard. His memory will not be extinguished. I love you Daniel and your kids will always know your love. Beside You Always, Katie”
