

Darthey Hazel

June 18, 1951 - January 2, 2022

Darthey Dean Hazel, born on June 18, 1951 of Ashville AL. She graduated from Hewitt Trussville High School in 1969. She was a caring mother, a wonderful sister, an amazing grandmother, and a genuine friend.

As a member of First Baptist Church of Chalkville, she dedicated her life to Jesus Christ on a beautiful Easter morning.

She is preceded in death by her parents Grover and Jemmie Hazel; sisters, Betty Crouse (Lyle Crouse) and Mary Herndon; Brothers, William Hazel(Kathy), Joe Hazel, and Jerry Hazel. She is survived by her children, Taylor Conradi (Melissa), Rainah Whisenhunt (Kenneth & Justin) and Johnny Burdine; Grandchildren, Colin Whisenhunt, Tanner Conradi, Tayleigh Rain Whisenhunt, Thomas Conradi and John Isaac Dean Wells; Sister, Micshelle Dewitt(Terry); sister-in-laws, Linda Hazel (Jerry) and Fran Hazel (Joe), Many Nieces and Nephews, cousins, and family friends that she loved as her own.

Darthey was one in a million. She had a smile that lit up a room, and such a contagious laugh. Her strong-willed determination to be the best person she could be paved the way for so many to follow. She held strong in the weakest times and always stayed true to everyone surrounding her.

Service will be held at Deerfoot memorial Funeral Home, Led by Brother Joel

Farrow, on Friday January 7th 2022. Viewing hours will be from 12:00 PM — 2:00 PM, Service to follow.

“Rainah and family, Your mom was one of a kind and such an inspiration and help to me when you and Lyndsy were teenagers. I was a basket case, and she was calm and cool. She persevered through pain and was an encouragement to us all. We'll never forget her. Love you, Lyndsy's g-mom, MeeMee
