“ Dear Juanita & Family,

*We are praying now for your peace, strength and courage as you are handling the loss of Deanna. Deanna has been in or church family's prayers for a long time and we have followed her triumph's and her let downs, all the while knowing and believing she was in God's hands. We know she is with Him now and there is rejoicing in Heaven. May God wrap His loving arms around each of you and give you peace and comfort knowing you will see her again one sweet day. “ There are so many precious and priceless memories of Deanna and Bryan. Most of these memories centered in activities and worship at First Baptist Church of Mango. Deanna and Bryan were one of my "kids" and I have am forever grateful God blessed my life with these two precious "teens". Those times were not just fun, but exciting to see God move in their lives. They touched my life, and forever I will be blessed that He gave all of us memories to treasure. Our sincere love, care and concern goes out to Bryan, their children grandchildren, her mother, her dad, sisters and brother. Deanna is safe in Jesus' arms. We love all of you.
