“ I am blessed with so many wonderful memories of "us"....we were crazy..we were serious....we were fun.....Traveling all over Alabama to band competitions..
.spending Christmas Eve together for years....and especially what we called "our time" when she got her nails done and we talked about everything that was important to us....the last few years we weren't able to spend as much time together but when we did get together we made up for the lost time...when we first met we were instant friends...I just wish we had gotten around to having that cup of coffee we planned on having.
I LOVED HER..we were so much alike in so many ways....
GOD BLESS and comfort all the family in the difficult days ahead.
Continued prayer for all of you...I love you very much.
