“ *I will never forget Dwight making cotton candy for the children at our fall festival. Covered head to toe with pink sugary webs of candy but still smiling. He was such a sweet loving man. Always there when he was needed. RIP

Dwight was a great friend. I had the privilege of working with Dwight for close to 40 years and it was obvious what high character he had. He was one of the most honest men you could find and he helped a lot of people with his job. He loved his family, and family lifestyle and his country. He is already missed. Joel Phillips.
