“ My Husband and I went to Two Sisters Restaurant because we heard about the food. There would be more to the story, little did I know.

We had to put our little yorkie to sleep. She had a heart defect. We cried and cried. So one night at Two sisters I overheard some people talking about puppies. I ask what kind and where were they getting it.

They told me Lisa had yorkies. I was so excited. I asked her. She had a little girl and boy that got together and produced puppies. So almost 3 years ago we became the proud parents of a little baby girl. When I went to pick her up at Two Sisters she weigh in at 15 oz. Lisa gave me a good price, because she knew what had happened and when she handed Bailey Rose Bud to me, she said I know you will take good care of her. She told me that Bailey's parents were so sweet. Bailey is a sweetheart and beautiful. She is spoiled rotten and knows how to get her way. I even hand feed her food. Her groomer loves her and Bailey loves her. She never meets a stranger. So Lisa was so right. Sweet beyond words. You will definitely be missed Lisa. You were a blessing to so many and still are.

“ Lisa has touched the lives of many people. She hired individuals, many of whom were down and out, giving them a chance when no one else would. She and I have spent many memorable hours together since 2015, she knew me at my worst and thankfully saw how Jesus changed my life. I remember we worked on shift just she and I, with it so cold all the water pipes were froze solid, but did we close early that long Friday night? No ma'am! We worked right up until closing! Lol Afterwards, her car was almost out of gas and I had to pump her gas because her door was frozen shut! Lol Lisa was a tenaciously hard worker and taught me so much. My life was made better for knowing her and thanks to Lisa I met many of those I consider my dearest friends. I don't believe I can ever step foot back in the restaurant without her sweet self there now. She will be greatly missed! I'll see you when I get home my sweet friend! Love always! Jennifer Thomas
