“ I always tell people that Mrs. Ann was my first best friend. I grew up going to church with her at Eastminster and we had a really special connection. One of my favorite childhood memories was her picking me up and us hanging out all day. We went to McDonalds (which I loved) and I just had the best day with her. She was a wonderful woman and I will always think of her as my first best friend.

“ I loved your, Mom, Eric. So many fond memories. I remember her Friday night visits to our house and her talking about her new Apple "mac" computer at work, and how she was learning to use it. So sorry you've lost her, but I know she continues to live in your heart. Peace and comfort to you in the days ahead.
