“ Rest In Peace Faye. I have fond memories of you when I was working with Tom. My team and I had some long cold nights working construction and you would turn up with hot soup and other goodies. As an Aussie working in the USA I had no family and you welcomed me with open arms. You were a special lady and no doubt you are missed greatly by your family and friends. I was saddened to learn of your passing. My thoughts are with you, Tom and you family. God bless you.

“ My mom wrote this poem when my grandfather died in 1977. I hope and pray that it will bring comfort to Faye's family and friends.

DEATH

*Death is a warm blanket
That closes my eyes and puts me to sleep.
I do not fear death,
But welcome it is a long lost friend,
Lost since the time of my beginning.*

*Death only makes me sad
For those I leave behind.
My heart aches now for their hurting.*

*When I pass over to be with my Maker,
Worry, pain and sadness will forsake me,
And my soul will be at peace.
So do not unhappily mourn me,
Be glad for my release.

“ Faye was a very sweet lady and often was smiling. Although she had her own health issues, she also worried about her husband Tom and others in our church. Faye always had a kind word to say. My late husband, George Adams, and Faye worked in the Business and Accounting Department at Jeff State Community College. After many years of not seeing each other, they caught up on news when we became members of Holy Cross three years ago.
