November 2, 1942 - July 17, 2017

Mrs. Gayle Dedman Henderson went to be with her Lord on Monday, July 17, 2017, at her home in Pinson, Alabama. Gayle was born in Birmingham, AL on November 2, 1942, the first of four children, and only daughter, of Bill and Frances Dedman. She graduated from Trussville High School in 1960 and went on to attend the University of Montevallo. She married her first love, James Ronald Henderson, on April 7, 1962. They brought three children into the world and had many great adventures traveling the continental United States. She celebrated life and its joys, especially in spring when all of the flowers were in bloom. She loved anything pink. She had many hobbies, the more successful of which were cooking, baking, sewing, reading, and gardening. Loving and caring for her family was her top priority. She had a servant's heart and was passionate about helping other people. She is preceded in death by her parents, Frances Biggers and William David Dedman, and her brother, Leslie Paul Dedman. She is survived by her devoted husband of fifty-five years and her brothers, Billy Dedman, and Don Dedman (Prissy). She created an enduring legacy of faith, love, strength, and kindness in her children, Pamela Jeanne Henderson, Donna Henderson Herren (Wood), and James Paul Henderson (Shelle). She dedicated her life to God and led by example for her seven grandchildren: Taylor (Whitney), Claire (Austin), Meredith, Abigail, Wood, Ashton, and Knox. A celebration of her life will be held on Friday, July 21, at 11:00 a.m. at Pinson United Methodist Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Pinson United Methodist Church.
