

Glen Steven Metts

March 12, 1950 - December 16, 2025

Glen Steven Metts, 75, died peacefully at home on December 16, 2025. Now he is with the Lord, who he loved so dearly.

He was preceded by his parents Glenelle and Herschel Metts, as well as his grandson Maddox Cade Roper.

He is survived by his devoted wife of 45 years, Susan Harris Metts; sister, Sheryl Latham; brothers, Bruce Metts and Richard Metts (Suzy); daughter, Kathryn Roper (Ka'Darian Hill); son, Jonathan Metts (Candace Buford), and his adored grandchildren: Jade and Nolan Roper, and Kalani Hill; and mother-in-law, Christine Harris; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends. Glen lived in Alabama his entire life and enjoyed the outdoors from a young age.

He was born March 12, 1950, and raised in Adamsville, where he learned to hunt and fish. He played football and graduated from Minor High School. He earned a Forestry degree at Auburn University and was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

He worked at Alabama Power Company over 30 years until retirement, helping to build new generation plants and transmission lines to modernize the state's electrical grid, as well as restoring power during severe weather. He was a member of Jasper First United Methodist Church, where he sang in the choir and played on the softball team, and later became a member at Clearbranch Methodist Church where he dearly loved his Small Group. He was a longstanding member of Jasper Men's Chorale and Horse Creek Hunting Club in Townley, Alabama. He enjoyed golfing, boating, travel, gardening, lawncare, sports of all kinds, and movies.
