“ Gloria was one of the most loving, caring, precious people in the world. I have known her for many years and I have never heard her make one derogatory remark about anyone. She saw beauty in everyone and in everything. She dearly loved her children and stepchildren, for which we will forever be indebted. Her love for her Savior shown brightly every day of her life and I know she is right now praising Him face-to-face. I will miss my friend.
