“ It was a beautiful visitation today and service at The National Cemetary. We were glad to be a part of it in Greg's memory. Greg was definitely honored for his military service, as well as, service to his community as a pharmacist and a man with a loving family and friends. We will look forward to the next time we are gathered at The National Cemetary to place flags at all the crosses and the beautiful wreaths at Christmas. Greg will be greatly missed at our family gatherings.

“ To Greg’s precious family I am so sorry for your loss I will continue to keep each one of you in prayers 🙏 Greg your shoes will never be filled! You’re a one of a kind and a wonderful coworker and friend. Thank u for all the good memories the help u gave to me and believing in me! The good music that u always listened too. And most of all the many counseling sessions u gave me in your office (narc Room). You could always tell when I was low and u brought me back up. Thank u for being a leader and a friend. Many many prayers and love to your precious family!

“ I have so many memories of Gregory B Holland...aka "LT. DAN," aka "G" over these last 25yrs. He kept us laughing, we fought and made up a million times yet whenever I needed anything done, he was there. He was a server. He served his family, community, patients, and country. He even looked after an older single hospital employee and when she left us, he made sure she was honored properly. He even was a self proclaimed "Jade," which is my sorority's name for our Sweethearts. ☐💚 To my movie line quoting, South Park performing, inside joke having, getting into fun trouble buddy... I'm sure going to miss you. Take your rest Colonel💙🕊️

“ I have so many hilarious memories with Greg and shenanigans that would get us in fun trouble. Right now I'm still in disbelief. What I will say is that LTC Gregory Brian Holland aka "Lt Dan" aka "G" would do anything he could for his friends. He quietly looked after an elderly hospital employee until her death and made sure she was properly honored. He always had a smile regardless of what he had to face and I always told him I needed him to teach me that! He served! He served his family, his patients, his community, and his country... Now the servant can take his rest. 💙🕊️
