“ Thank you all. My oldest brother meant a lot to me. He loved cooking. He used to be in a chess club and a pipe smoking club. He taught me how to play guitar and chess, how to appreciate computers and music, he gave me my first dungeons and dragons game and took me to my first concert. He treated me with respect and turned me on to knowledge. His grin was something else and he would give anyone the shirt off his back if you needed it. He was the best of us, who I aspired to be like.
