

Gwendolyn Head Woody

November 8, 1960 - February 20, 2026

Gwendolyn Head Woody, affectionately known as “Gwen” to her family and friends, was born on November 8, 1960, to Felix Harrell and Velma Eleanor Newsome Head. At an early age, Gwen confessed her faith in Christ and was baptized at Mt. Zion Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. T. C. Williams. Gwen was a proud graduate of Springville High School Class of 1979, where she was an active member of the Beta Club and played on the girls’ basketball team. Her determination and team spirit was evident even in her youth.

She was united in marriage to the late Arthur Woody, and from this union two beautiful daughters, Amanda and Gail, were born. Gwen’s life revolved around her family and friends. She was selfless, always placing the needs of others before her own.

Known for her strength and unwavering work ethic, Gwen worked diligently throughout her life. She was employed for several years at Marshall Durbin Co. and later found her true calling as a caregiver. As a caregiver, she gave not only care but genuine love and compassion to her patients, who cherished her just as deeply.

On February 20, 2026, Gwen peacefully transitioned from the discomforts and labors of this world to eternal rest with the Lord.

She was preceded in death by her father, Felix Harrell, and her mother, Velma Eleanor Newsome Head.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: her devoted daughters, Amanda Woody of Birmingham, Alabama, and Gail Woody of Montgomery, Alabama; her beloved grandchildren, Amaria Evans and Amia Evans of Homestead, Florida; her siblings, Jacquelyn (Leslie) Jackson, Cshenavia (Jerome) Byrd, Aaron Head, and Angela Head, all of Springville, Alabama; Felton (Mary) Head of Huntsville, Alabama; and her cherished aunt, Estelle Long of Springville, Alabama. She also leaves behind loving nieces, nephews, and a host of cousins, extended family members, and dear friends.

Gwen's legacy of love, strength, and compassion will forever live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
