“ I don't remember a time in my life that he was not there for myself and my sisters. One snowy day my sisters and I decided to make a snowball. We pushed and pushed until the it was to heavy for us to move. Then here comes Uncle Inzer. He jumped in helped us all the while telling us don't quit, keep pushing. At the time I didn't realize as a 6 year old he was teaching us a life lesson. In the end the sownball was tall than all of us. Thank you Uncle Inzer!

“ As a very young boy I thought Inzer Terry was my uncle, he and his family were seemingly always around gatherings with the Cowans. That's a compliment, they felt like family to us. We were blessed to know him. I'm glad we were able to visit some over the last couple of years. God Speed, Inzer. Rest in Heaven. John Godwin, Jr.

“ Other than Jesus, I don't think there was ever a better man that walked this earth than Inzer. Over the nearly 50 years that I have known him and his family, I have so many wonderful memories of the times that we've had together, which always brings at least a smile to my face, and most of the time it's laughter. Inzer will be great missed by hundreds of people. Like many, many other people, I love the Terrys!

“ When I got married, Stacy and I bought a house where our backyard met up against Inzer's backyard. I'll never forget Inzer driving his tractor up the subdivision road and turning into our front yard. We had no clue on how to do our yard, but there he went with his tractor working in our yard. I always looked at his beautiful gardens. He sure stayed busy working outside. Loved seeing him and Ann at church each week. Such a good neighbor and an incredible man. Will be greatly missed but not for long. Heaven is a blink away for us all.
