“ As a kid that lived down the street from The Taylor's and went to Curry and Woodlawn schools with Tommy and Ronnie, I'll always remember Mrs. Taylor hard at work in her yard. She was always nice to me and let me have dinner with the family. I last saw she and Mr. Taylor in the early nineties when I was showing my then wife the old neighborhood (Mr. Taylor was sweeping the front porch), and we stopped and talked for awhile.
My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ I remember when Johnny and Fay moved into their home on 8th Avenue North across the street from my family. I enjoyed babystting and playing with all of the kids. I was sadden when I learned Fay had earned her Angel Wngs. May our Heavenly Father wrap his arm around each member of her family, giving the courage, comfort, and strength as they travel the road of missing a great lady who watched out and help several of her neighbors later in life. Faye is loved and will be missed by many.
