“ We were heartbroken to hear about JC. He was such a personable, friendly, funny man. I feel that he played a huge part in keeping our community safe. He was like the mayor of Bent Creek. He will be so missed by everyone that knew him but it is comforting to know that he is dancing in heaven with Joanie now.
RIP J.C.

“ I had the pleasure of both working and schooling with JC. We had classes at UAB together. Once class, philosophy, started out real good. We would go to Lowenbrau's in Homewood and listen to the professor sing bluegrass. I was a great class and we were learning all sorts of things about life and knowledge. If this sounds trite, it isn't. We were learning about the stoics and their ideas on life. Then the professor's wife got involved in an auto accident in West Virginia. He did not return to class. UAB sent in a philosophy professor who started talking to us a bout truth tables and all sorts of other stuff. If A is true and B is true then We will never know if C is true. We were lost. Grades were plummeting. Ferrell seemed to grasp truth tables like a puzzle. He helped me and Jack Legrand get through the course. I can tell you how he did it but I will not put it in writing.

“ My condolences to Randy Rock and the Ferrell Family. Mr. J.C Ferrell welcome us into the community of Bent Creek Drive as if he had known us for years with a smile on his face. It has been a blessing to know him in the past year while living in the Bent Creek Community. We consider Mr. J.C., Randy Rick and Coco part of our immediate family since moving to the community. We will truly miss seeing and talking with him on the golf car and in the yard as we drive or walk through the community.

*May God bless and keep his Hands on y'all through this hard time.
Y'all are in our prayers daily.*
