

James W. Caswell

July 11, 1934 - September 24, 2021

James W. Caswell, a resident of Odenville, AL, went to be with the Lord unexpectedly on Sept. 24th, 2021 at the age of 87.

James was predeceased by his parents, Delos and Rose Caswell, his first wife Barbara Caswell, and second wife, Elizabeth Dean Caswell. He is survived by his brother Wayne Baker, 3 children Debra (Ron) Roeder, Diane Nixon, James I. Caswell, step-children Tabitha (Mark) Caterinichia, and Kim (Wayne) Chamness. He is also survived by his 13 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and 7 great-great-grandchildren.

He was a devoted Christian who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a Deacon at New Lebanon Baptist Church. He was born in 1934 in rural PA, where he raised his 2 daughters. He was a carpenter, and electrical and mechanical engineer whom worked and retired from IBM. During his career with IBM he transferred from Endicott, NY to Charlotte, NC where he raised his son. After retiring in 1999 James moved to Odenville, Alabama where he lost his first wife of 58 years, Barbara (Decker) Caswell in 2013. James married his second wife, Elizabeth 'Dean' (Crim) Caswell, in 2014 where he was blessed with 2 additional daughters. James and Dean were happily married for almost 7 years prior to her passing in 2020.

He enjoyed traveling, spending time with family, watching John Wayne westerns, Tarzan, and being a jack of many trades. He participated in many mission trips, both in the United States and abroad, lending his carpentry, electrical and mechanical skills to build and repair retirement villages for missionaries. He was always willing to lend his time to help those he loved, whether it was fixing their car, lawn mower, or building a home, no job too big or small. He will forever be missed, but we are confident in knowing he is with his Heavenly Father and at peace. We will all see him again one day, to which we know he would respond with, "You Betcha!"

Celebration of Life will be held on October 23, 2021, beginning at 12 noon at New Lebanon Baptist Church - 169 New Lebanon Rd., Odenville, AL 35120.

“ I went to school with his daughter, Diane. I remember that I was going to pick her up for school, one snowy morning. I wasn't sure of which house. Being a fairly new driver, the cars and snow on the street, made me nervous and I ended up getting stuck! Well, Mr. Caswell, came to the car and with a shovel and something (gravel?), he had me out in no time! I'll never forget his generosity and well wishes as he got me on the way! Prayers for peace and comfort for his family during this difficult time.
