

James Derek Hansen

November 16, 1982 - May 8, 2020

The Lord called James home last Friday night. He has gone on to join those that went before him: his daddy, Jimmy Ray Hansen, Maternal Grandmother, Shirley McGinnis and Maternal Aunt, Ouida Levesque.

As James celebrates in Heaven, there are those on earth that will miss his contagious smile, his generous hugs and his ability to lighten a heavy mood with just a word or by batting those baby blues: His children who were his entire world, Gaven Hansen, Huntsville and Aliyah Hansen, Moody, (their Moms Sara and Brandy,) his Mom, his Rock, his biggest champion, Tina Trousdale, Pell City, his sisters, who in various times throughout his life, lifted him up, supported him, got him through tough times and he in turn did the same for them, Stephanie Knight, Augusta, Ga., Erica Hansen, Pell City, Heather Lewis (Joshua,) and Kimberly Wingo, Tarrant, his brother and partner in crime Dewayne Wingo, (Elora), Port Clinton, Ohio, several nieces and nephews, Aaron Hansen McGinnis, Odenville, Zariah and Xavia Knight, Juneau, Alaska, (Stephanie,) Mason and Cameron Lewis, (Heather) Emily Lewis, (Kimberly), Ryan, Savannah and Raelynn Wingo, (Dewayne,) an Aunt and Uncle who loved him without measure, Dodi and Bobby Traylor, Leeds, cousins, Jonica Thompson, (Robert,) Guntersville, Robert Traylor, Leeds, his Grandpa Jack McGinnis, Odenville, bonus Mom, Lou Hansen, Pell City, Maternal Uncle, Kenton Hooker, New Market, Suffolk, UK, ( Anne-Marie), cousins Rachel Converse, (Mike) Stockbridge, Vermont, Michael Hooker, (Alexandria,) Mildenhall, Norfolk, England

Celebration of Life Services will be held Friday May 15, 2020, Reverend Eugene Howard, officiating

Pallbearers: Brandon Lindley Scott Reeves

Robbie Satterfield Ryan Wingo

“ James and I worked repairing industrial fans, bark bins and other equipment. We ran across the South East working paper mill and steel mill shutdowns. We worked hard but we had time for fun some too. James was a good you g man and he'll be missed. I feel that he's with the Lord and now he's all good.
