

James "Mack" Litaker

March 17, 1983 - October 6, 2018

James "Mack" Litaker, 35, of Birmingham passed away after a valiant battle with head and neck cancer on Saturday, October 6, 2018.

Mack was born in Charleston, SC but made his home in Alabama.

He was one of those rare humans that everyone loved to be around.

He was kind, funny, courageous and could fix almost anything.

He loved, fishing, working on cars, cooking like a boss, and being with his friends and family.

Survivors include: the love of his life, Melissa Ramey Litaker (wife), adoring son, Brenton Litaker (mother Deidre Perry), Christopher Tyree (step-son), Eleanor Jordan (Grandmother), Mark Litaker (father), Angela & Bill Kubinec (mother and step father), Grey Litaker (sibling) and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Services for Mack are Thursday, October 11, 2018 with visitation from 4:00-6:00 PM and memorial service from 6:00-7:00 PM at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home located at 5630 Deerfoot Parkway, Trussville, AL 35173.

In lieu of flowers, the family asked that donations be made to Head and Neck Cancer Alliance: P.O. Box 21688, Charleston, SC 29413, 1-866-792-4622.

You may donate online from their website, www.headandneck.org - Go to the "Get Involved" tab, then the "Donate". You can donate in memory of Mack Litaker.

“ *Our love and deepest, sincerest sympathies to you and Brenton, and of course his family, at this time. Mack was a wonderful, sincere, funny and altogether fantastic person. Just knowing him as peripherally as I did, I was touched by his love and adoration for you. It just shone from him. May he forever fly with angels, and we know that he will be with you and Brenton eternally.
Godspeed, sweet Mack. Get heaven's chariots back to racing again!
Know that we love you, Melissa.

“ Mostly I think of how much he loves Melissa & Brenton.
Every time we talked he mentioned them.
Working on cars & Legos - Mack is one of The Best.
