

James "Carl" Murray

August 31, 1927 - June 5, 2017

James "Carl" Murray of Roebuck Plaza passed away June 5, 2017 short of his 90th birthday. He was born in Springville to Elmer and Lilly Murray August 31, 1927. Mr. Murray retired from the ceramic tile business in the early 90's, which enabled him to spend more time working in the garden and sharing his produce with others. He is preceded in death by his wife of over 54 years, Margie Robinson Murray. In addition to his wife, Mr. Murray is also preceded by two sisters, Doris Jackson and Janie Hemby. He is survived by his children, Marie Gulledge (Richard), Larry Murray (Sheila) and Mavis Reeves (Vince); grandchildren, Richard Gulledge Jr. (Amy), April Murray and Michael Murray (Jackie) as well as three great grandchildren, (Felecia Gulledge, Gabrielle Gulledge and Carter Murray). In addition, Mr. Murray is also survived by his dear friend, Janice White, as well as her children, Michael White (Christy) and Pam Norris (Jody) and their families. Visitation will be held at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home in Trussville Wednesday, June 7th from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM with the funeral service to follow at 2:00 PM (graveside service will be held at Jefferson Memorial). A special thanks to St. Vincent's Home Health and Hospice Care as well as all those who helped during this time (Donna Stupek, Fay Wilson, Robert and Connie Anderson, Betty Reach, Vicki King and many more). Instead of flowers, please make donations to your favorite charitable organization. Dr. Charlie Martin will be officiating. Pallbearers will be, Richard Gulledge Jr., Michael Murray, Michael White, Danny White, Colby White and Verbon Holmes.

“ Carl has been one of our oldest and most treasured friends through the years. I pray God's peace and comfort during their time of grief. I can still see Carl laughing with us about funny things one of us had done. He was a good man and I have never heard anything bad said against him. We should all live like Carl so there will be good memories left behind.
