He spent numerous hours discussing scripture with his mother, Lori, and his grandmother, Sandra Grissom. Some of his favorite scriptures were: And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love (1 Corinthians 13:13), Come to me all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest (Mathew 11:28), and For whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). “ My only son. My boy who I loved dearly. He was an amazing brother to his sisters, some times a little over protective. A personality that could light up a room, always a good laugh. He had this mischievous crooked grin that I adored! He grew up and married his true love Alexandra. No man could love a woman more than he loved her. They have the most beautiful children John David and Hampton. Our last conversation together we read scripture over the phone. I wish he could just call me one more time. " I thank my God every time I remember you! Philipians 1;3. Our last scripture we read. Love you always my son!!!
