

James Byron Vaughan Jr.

November 27, 1983 - November 15, 2021

James Byron Vaughan Jr, 37, passed away on November 15, 2021.

Byron was a beacon of light for all who knew and loved him. He was involved in multiple charities that focused on homelessness and addiction recovery.

Byron is survived by his mother, Renee Bagley, his father, James Byron Vaughan Sr., his sister, Fairen Vaughan, and grandparents, Robert and Glenda Bagley and Jimmy and Lois Vaughan, his lifelong love, Mitzi Vaughan along with her children Madison and Riley and grandchild named Jace that called Byron "Pops".

He will be missed by his aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who loved him dearly. He was preceded in death by his aunt, Samantha Bagley, and cousin, Steven Ray Vaughan Jr.

Tribute Wall

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of James Byron Vaughan Jr..

November 19, 2021 at 08:43 AM

“ Prayers for your family. You touched so many people in your short life. It isn't fair that you had to leave but now you can rest, sweet friend.

Erica Thomas - November 19, 2021 at 07:55 AM