

Jane Adema

May 1, 1940 - October 3, 2020

Jane Jones Adema, age 80, of Birmingham went to be with the Lord on Saturday, October 3.

Jane grew-up in Tarrant City and graduated from Philip's High School. Gayle Young remained her life-long best friend. She attended Samford University and worked as a legal secretary. In later years, she worked at McRae's in Roebuck.

Her greatest joy was being a wife to Ron for over 60 years, raising their four children and spoiling their 9 grandchildren and 1 great grandson.

She faithfully served the Lord as a pastor's wife, nursery coordinator, girl's bible study leader, a community volunteer and mother. She was lovingly referred to as "Mama Jane" by countless young people that she ministered to and loved as her own including (but not limited to) Cheryl Molinar, Eddie Lacey and Sherry Carson.

She is preceded in death by parents Carmen and Grace Jones and sister Anna Jones Kelley. She is survived by her husband Ron of over 60 years, their four children DeAnna Owen (Rick), Rhonda Rosenblum (Al), Bill Adema (Terri), Angela Widgeon (Dave); nine grandchildren: Jeremiah Owen (Kayla), Tricia Watts (Jonathan), Zach Rea (Caragan), Gracie Rosenblum, Tena

Rosenblum, Ty Adema, Jacob Adema, Ben Widgeon, Evelyn Widgeon and great-grandson Hays Owen.

Jane was a devoted wife, mother, Mamie, “Mama Jane” and a faithful prayer warrior and servant of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

A private memorial service will be held at Doctrinal Studies Bible Church in Roebuck on Saturday, October 10 at 10:30am. The service will be live-streamed on the church’s website and social media outlets.

“ Jane and I met when we were eleven years old. On my 12th birthday we rode the bus downtown, went to the movies, ate lunch, and at department stores tried on dresses that we knew we couldn't purchase. We rode the bus back to Tarrant and were walking down the sidewalk behind two sailors. Suddenly, one of them turned and hit the other, who fell through the plate glass window of a grocery store. Glass shattered and flew in all directions while they kept fighting. Neither of us ever forgot that birthday. We were inseparable, sharing laughter, tears, confidences, hopes, and dreams. My home was her home; her home was my home. She was always my best friend and always was and will be in my heart.

“ I have the most wonderful growing-up memories of my cousin Jane. I had the honor of being in the wedding when Jane and her beloved Ron got married and have watched their ministry grow and evolve through these 60 years. Jane was a Christ Follower and His presence in her life showed in everything she did. My prayers are with all of you as you mourn Jane’s loss yet celebrate her well-lived life.
