

Jane Smitherman Zobrosky

March 7, 1945 - February 14, 2026

Jane Smitherman Zobrosky, 80 of Trussville, Alabama passed away peacefully and has entered her enteral home with Jesus Christ on February 14, 2026.

Born on March 7, 1945, Jane lived a life devoted to faith, family, and education.

She attended Woodrow Wilson Elementary School and graduated from Ensley High School in 1962. Jane earned her Bachelor's degree in Education from the University of Alabama in 1966, where she was a proud member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. She later continued her education at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, earning a Master's degree in Education.

Jane dedicated more than forty years to teaching elementary school, touching countless lives with her patience, encouragement, and unwavering love for her students. Her excellence in the classroom was recognized through numerous awards, including being named Teacher of the Year. Teaching was not just her profession—it was her calling.

Her faith was central to her life. Growing up, she was an active member of Hunter Street Baptist Church, and as an adult, she faithfully attended and served at Trussville First Baptist Church.

Jane was preceded in death by her parents, Cecil and Mary Cortez Smitherman.

She is survived by her beloved husband of over fifty-two years, Daniel Zobrosky, Jr.; her son, Chris Zobrosky (Catherine); her daughter, Lauren Zobrosky Estes (Reed); her cherished grandchildren, Kell Zobrosky, Knox Zobrosky, Vivian Zobrosky, Mackenzie Estes, Lawson Estes, Collier Estes, and Greer Estes; and her brother, Tom Smitherman.

Jane will be remembered for her kind spirit, steadfast faith, devotion to her family, and the lasting impact she made on generations of students. Her legacy of love and service to her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will continue to live on in all who knew her
