

Jerry Wayne Bratton

July 14, 1949 - March 30, 2026

Jerry Wayne Bratton closed his eyes March 30th surrounded by his wife, daughter, and loving family members and when he opened them again was embraced by the loving arms of his Savior. He was born in Birmingham, Alabama on July 14th, 1949 and grew up in Roebuck where he played with the little girl that lived across the street, Carlene Singleton, who later became his wife of 55 years. Jerry had a servant's heart and was a hard working employee for many years at US Gypsum and then later at Target and Walmart. He was a long time member of Northpark Baptist Church where he was very involved in his Men's D-Life Group. He also enjoyed volunteering at Serving You ministries where he blessed others and helped provide food for those in need. Jerry loved piddling in his utility building fixing things, he was good at gardening, and more than anything he loved spending time with his grandkids and supporting them in the activities they were passionate about such as sports, school and church activities.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Berllia and Garland Bratton, his brother Billy, and his son in law, Darin V oudrie.

He is survived by his wife Carlene Bratton, his daughter, Jeanna V oudrie Hodges (Jonathan), her children Hadley Blalock (Joseph), Toxey, Kasen, and Easton V oudrie, and Jonna Lyn and Beckett Hodges; great grandson, Banks

Blalock; as well as, his sister, Janet Howard. He will also be missed by many nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank the staff of Alabama Hospice Care, especially Catie and Faye, for their kindness and care. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Serving You Ministries.
