“ Jerry was very special to me. When I first start playing in the dogfight at Trussville Country Club on Saturday mornings, he was the first person I played with. A new friendship was born. This was in 2005.

I also put a quartet together that sang on Sunday afternoons at the Methodist church in Trussville. We never performed but it was a lot of fun. He had such a rich, deep bass voice.

My life is much richer having known such a great, Christian man of God!!!

I know God has welcomed him and said....Welcome home my good and faithful servant!!!
