“ I ll always remember the first time i met Joan , i was working in a chicken house on hwy 11 , she pulled up with an accent saying hi my name is Joan Vinson I'm needing a baby sitter do u know where i might find one, i was 21 years old at the time.I told her about my mom that she did baby sitting, I walk to her car , she had her youngest son Sam on a pillow , he was so small . That was 48 years , we have kept in touch every since that day . I loved her very dearly. She loved me too. We had lots of laughs over the years, i could tell u more but it would take all nite, i love u Joanie, there will never be another like u my friend,
