

John Timothy Warren

August 12, 2021

John Timothy Warren went to be with his Lord and Savior on August 12, 2021. Kay and Jennifer, his sisters, and special friend Kim were with him when he passed away peacefully. Tim was an avid University of Alabama Football fan. Winning or losing, he supported his team to the fullest. Fishing at Lake Guntersville was a favorite sport that he loved. He loved fishing and was always ready to go. Tim is preceded in death by his parents, Sybil and Kelly Warren, and his much loved older brother, Randall K. Warren. Tim is survived by his sisters and their families. Kay and Jerry Birdwell and Jennifer "Jenny" and Jerry Bain. Uncle Tim also leaves behind many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Tim had many friends, many from Bank HS who will miss his friendship dearly. Tim was a Medical Coder, that was his niche and he loved his job very much. Tim was also a member at First Baptist Church. Services will be held at Deerfoot Memorial Chapel in Trussville, Alabama Friday, August 20, 2021 with a Visitation 12 to 1 P.M. and a Chapel Service to follow at 1 P.M. There will be no burial. In lieu of flowers you can make donations to Alabama Baptist Children's Home in memory of Tim.

“ Tim, I will miss you so much. You were truly Superman, you overcame every obstacle in life that ever crossed your path. You lived life to it's fullest. We share so many memories together that I don't even know where I would start. We endured many challenges together and survived it. You were so funny, I will miss you sarcasm. You always smelled so good! You were such a giving person. Thank you for always believing in me and supporting me.

One scripture came to mind when I thought of your passing and ironically it is from the book of 2 Timothy.

2Timothy 4:7

KJV

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

To Tim's family, when I came into your lives you accepted me like I was your own and I am very grateful for that. I will always love you all.

“ Well Timbo, where can I start? The fish hook in the head at one of our many vacations at Guntersville? The broken ankle? The beach trips? We love you so much and you have no idea how much you'll be missed. Now you're flying high! ❤️

Tim, where do I begin??? I'm heartbroken that you're gone but, I know you are rejoicing with the angels and your Mama and Daddy, and everyone else that moved on before you. You touched so many lives and I'm sure when you entered God's Kingdom you got to see how many you really did touch. You were and always will be such a special person to me. We went through a lot together (some might say to hell and back at times) but we both came out ok. Like the words I once wrote to you, you were Superman, you overcame every obstacle that was put in your path. You were so hilarious and you always smelled so good LOL! I treasure so many memories that we made together. I will hold onto those memories forever and let them wash over me and comfort me every time I think of you and miss you. Thank you for all you ever did for me and for my kids. Thank you for being my friend.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

King James Version

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

To the family, I am so sorry that you lost Tim, I know how very much he loved each and every one of you. Thank you for being so kind and welcoming and making me a part of your family when I entered your lives. I know where Tim got his kindness from. I'm sending prayers and love to you all. 💕
